

We are proud to present some booming services we are offering in Belgium and we will explain how they are impacting the relationship between pharmacists and patients.

The introduction of the “family pharmacist” service in October 2017 was a milestone. The “Shared Pharmaceutical Record” is a success too since after a slow start nearly 99% of all Belgian Pharmacists are connected. We’ll show you that these and other officially recognized services will shape the pharmacist’ future.